

17

MORNING AND EVENING

0121CHI7

Tick tock," says the clock.
 "Wake up," says the sun.
 "Kukarakoo," says the cock.
 "It's morning, little one."

TICK TOCK

TICK TOCK

"Tick tock," says the clock.
 "Time to sleep," says the moon.
 "Sweet dreams, no more talk
 Till morning — it'll be soon."

Let's Try This

Repeat these sentences after your teacher.

1. We come to school in the morning.
 We study and play.
 We go home in the evening.
 We go to sleep at night.

TO THE TEACHER

- Read the poem aloud and ask the children to repeat it after you.
- Based on the poem, assign roles to them and help them say the sentences correctly.

